

Susan Fournier is the Immediate Past President of I-CHRIE, the International Council on Hotel, Restaurant and Institutional Education. This organization of approximately 1,400 leading professors and educators from around the world is the global leader in hospitality and tourism education and research. During her 3-year tenure as I-CHRIE Executive Board Member, she has worked to develop each federation and strengthen the I-CHRIE brand to fulfill the vision of excellence in education and training for the tourism sector worldwide. She actively participates in international research and attends major academic and tourism industry conferences in Asia, Europe and the USA.

Susan Fournier is currently the Conference and Research Manager at Cesar Ritz Colleges Switzerland., an institution welcoming over 70 nationalities on three Swiss campuses. She has recently implemented their new Leadership Program as well as teaching EFL and hospitality management courses for the past 20 years.

www.chrie.org www.ritz.edu